Keith McKelley plays a DURGA Gold/Rhodium 8 Tenor Mouthpiece

“The DURGA is the Perfect mouthpiece for me! Theo's attention to detail is unparalleled. I absolutely Love the DURGA! It gives me a fat tone but I also get that "center" and clarity to my sound that I've been seeking for so long. I haven't played a mouthpiece I believe gave me everything I needed, until now. Now I don't have to fight the mouthpiece to compensate for what I feel is lacking in it. The DURGA has exactly what I need to help me get the sound I hear in my head. Thanks again Theo! I can't wait to see what you have up your sleeve next because I know it WILL be made with the highest standards!” - Keith McKelley
